Needs of student

GIFTED AND TALENTED

A student at your school is identified as talented or gifted and you are unsure of how to provide learning opportunities for them.

Help available

Information, professional support for your school and teachers, and a range of resources are available.

Gifted and talented students are also able to be enrolled in The Correspondence School as well as their usual school.

How to get it

Information is available on Te Kete Ipurangi: www.tki.org.nz Look in TKI communities and select Gifted and Talented.

Professional support for your school and teachers can be accessed through the School Support Services gifted and talented advisory support (GATE advisors) based in universities/ colleges of education. Information is available on Te Kete Ipurangi: www.tki.org.nz Look in TKI communities and select Gifted and Talented.

Resources for schools can be found on Te Kete Ipurangi: www.tki.org.nz Look in TKI communities and select Gifted and Talented.

Further information can also be found in Nurturing Gifted and Talented Children. A Parent-Teacher Partnership. This book is available from the Ministry of Education Publications (free phone 0800 660 662).

See The Correspondence School website for more information. This is called a dual enrolment: www.correspondence.school.nz

What to expect

This range of support provides schools with the information and skills necessary to provide a curriculum that has been expanded in breadth, depth and pace to meet the learning needs of gifted students.

The Correspondence School offers distance learning. Courses may be taught through a mix of media.
